DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 19-25, 30, 32-34 and 36 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of non-obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18 of U.S. Patent No. 6,561,133. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both disclose a method of modifying a foraging distribution of animals comprising the steps of selecting a foraging area encompassed by the foraging distribution and supplying the foraging area with an ingestible to be ingested by a foraging animal.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3644

Claims 19-23, 25 and 30-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Liegner (5,050,539). Liegner teaches a method of attracting foraging animals such as deer into an area having abundant forage comprising identifying the area with abundant forage, providing at least one ingestible such as a highly-palatable, portable, self-limiting low moisture block 38, consisting of a pressed block of salt in a portable container 10 to the area to be ingested by any ungulate, wild or preconditioned and to increase the length of stay of the animals in the area, see col. 2, lines 8-12.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 24 and 33-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Liegner (5,505,539) in view of Robbins (6,244,217)

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR

Art Unit: 3644

1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). For applications filed on or after November 29, 1999, this rejection might also be overcome by showing that the subject matter of the reference and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person. See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

Liegner does not disclose the use of other supplements. Robbins '217 teaches the use of other ingestibles, see col. 7, lines 11-35 for use with animals such as cattle, horses, sheep, deer and elk. With respect to claim 24, to use other ingestibles such as grain or silage as taught by Robbins with the dispenser of Liegner would have been obvious to one skilled in the art as a replacement of functional equivalents.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-18 and 37-43 are allowed.

Claims 26-29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
